

Beckman High School's Teacher of the Year for 2020-21 is Mr. Brad Bohn. Brad is an outstanding teacher who always keeps his students engaged. He works tirelessly to create meaningful, practical, and applicable lessons for his students to ensure that they are interested and learning at all times. His Socratic method of teaching allows him to connect with kids and causes them to feel comfortable in his class. To quote Mr. McGill "From the beginning, Brad has and continues to be one the most inquisitive, perceptive, and reflective teachers in the department. He is constantly seeking ways to improve his instruction and to improve student achievement and well-being." Congratulations to Mr. Bohn... Beckman High School's Teacher of the Year!
